FORT SHAFTER IN THIRD PLACE

Two Fast Games at Aala Park Witnessed by Small Crowd.

Riverside League Standing.

	P. W.	Pet.
Aalas	3	3
Alohas	4	3
Fort Shafter	3	1
Palamas	4	1
Kewalos	4	1

Yesterday's results: Fort Shafter, 4; Kewalos, 2; Aalas, 5; Palamas, 3. The usual Aala park crowd was badly thinned by the emigration to the new ground yesterday afternoon, but there was quite a crowd of the old standbys there and Mon Tai had enough collecting to do to bring out that genial smile.

There were two really close and snappy games and the crowd grew towards the end until it looked almost like a regular Riverside day.

The feature of the afternoon was the great victory of the Fort Shafter over the Kewalos. The boys from the camp handed out a very fine brand of baseball and deserved victory. It was noticed that they have a new manager, Lieutenant Bowen and a new captain, Straus. Lieutenant Bowen took a keen and close interest in the game and coached his players before the game and in between the innings with much goodly effect. If the road-pioneers keep up this class of work they are very liable to romp away with the pennant.

The First Game.
Here is how the Fort Shafter took third place in the league instead of being at the tail-end. The winners opened the game by scoring two, as follows: McCall was safe on Souza's error at third and went to second on a wild throw but was out burling then. Lemm and Ellis both binged the error while Lemm scored, Ellis went to third and Straus reached second. Ellis then scored on a passed ball by Josephat. Straus was asleep at third and Santen fanned. 2 to 0, Fort Shafter.

The Infantry kids made one more in the third. McCall flew to Freitas at left field but Lemm walked and stole second, Ellis fanned but Straus binged to right field and Lemm scored but Straus was asleep at second. 3 to 0, Fort Shafter.

The Kewalos made their first in the fifth. Lee was the hero of this inning, he doubled, stole third and scored on a passed ball while all the other three batters died at first. Score: 3 to 1, Fort Shafter.

Both scored one in the eighth. Congo romped for the Fort and Deponte for the Kewalos. There was no scoring in the ninth and the game ended 4 to 2 in favor of Fort Shafter.

The Second Game.
The second game between the Aalas and Palamas was a very interesting affair. The Aalas scored one in each of the first four innings but the Palamas scored three in the sixth with five bingles and had it not been for the magnificent fielding of the winners, they would not only have tied the score but taken a lead.

In the first inning Henry Chillingworth doubled, Desha was safe on Hoopii's error and Henry scored while Desha reached second. Walker died, McHardee flew out and Limahema also died. In the second period Bob Chillingworth walked, got second on a wild pitch, Butler skied, Moses died from second to first but Bob reached third. Then Bob got home on a wonderful combination of stealing.

steal third, but was found asleep, and then Kaupua skied.
The Aalas scored one more in the seventh and this closed the scoring for the day. In both the eighth and ninth it looked as though the Palamas would turn the trick, but the Aala fielding was too good for them and there was nothing doing.

The official score was:

A LIBERDADE ON STREET BALL

The following clipping from the English column of the local Portuguese journal, A Liberdade, is timely and worth taking notice of. The great national game is good for small boys to learn, but they might just as well play on bare lots as on the streets:

The attention of the police is called to the games of baseball that are being played by boys in the streets. On Vineyard near Emma some days ago a lady was struck on the head by a ball thrown by one of the boys playing ball. We do not wish to discourage baseball, for it is better, far better, than loafing or gambling, but the streets are for pedestrians and should not be made a playground. Pedestrians have a right to walk the streets without having to dodge balls and the like.

H. M. Ayres wishes it announced that he has been unable to get his paper out during the last three weeks on account of his absence in Hilo but that it will come out again this week, better than ever with some first rate racing dope as one of the attractions.

The Hilo Tribune quotes largely from the Honolulu papers on the racing proposition, but makes few comments.
